Brooklyn Thompson

MIT & Harvard Graduate, Boston Native, & Entrepreneur

I know my way around the beantown. And when I was younger, I always knew and appreciated the history surrounding this place, in all of its nooks and crannies.

I don't believe that sort of charm expires.

So from there, I knew what I wanted to do. I wanted to reinvent old spaces into new hubs where Bostoners could continue to contribute to one of America's most cultural, buzzing cities — for businesses like yours.

So have a look around at what I've made from the hidden gems of this old town, and let me know when I can make one of them yours. See what I mean
